So how does it taste? Here's how one self-proclaimed coffee lover / addict described it: LurraFit Coffee™ is a full-bodied, dark black coffee. The flavor and aroma of the multi origin bean blend are rich and complex. It starts bold and smooth, with low acidity and little bitterness. The bold yet soft notes of the Arabica coffee beans are present in both the aroma and the taste. As the coffee cools, the flavor deepens as the added adaptogens intermingle – creating a truly pleasant coffee drinking experience.
